

Erasmus+Staff Mobility for Training

Vytautas Magnus University (VMU) organize the staff training week for partner Universitas from the 2nd to the 6th of May, 2022 in Kaunas, Lithuania.

Year 2022 is unique both to VMU and the City Kaunas. The University is celebrating the 100th anniversary of its establishment as the University of Lithuania and Kaunas city has officially become the European Capital of Culture 2022.

The overall objectives of the mobility:

- To represent the Faculty of Civil Engineering of UP, Kosovo academic staff to the University Vytautas Magnus University LT
- To exchange experience and ideas in the organisation of the Faculties – academic issues, quality performance, the Faculty administration and increasing the teaching quality assurance for the students.
- Training academic staff for the teaching methodologies. Academic Research activity. International projects of practises.
- Practises for the accreditation and reaccreditation of the study programmes.

Activities that are carried out:

- Meetings with the Faculties managements
- Training in the academic areas,
- Possible preparation of future cooperation and future international projects for instance; Erasmus+, Horizon etc.

The outcomes and Impacts from the training weeks:

- Gaining teaching experience in an international context
- Strengthening of intercultural competence of all parties involved
- To get information about international projects for the development of study programs. The students and academic staff encouraging for mobility.
- Created contacts with the region, European and World Universities.
- Innovative and improved way of operating towards their target groups;

